

Indiana University Recruits More International Students

Indiana University (IU) is having more and more international students since 2000. The percentage of international students in 2015 (8.3%) is twice as much as the percentage in 2000 (4.2%). Bloomington, the largest campus of IU, has 6,126 international students in 2015. It is the largest number of international students since the school was founded.

Number of International Students in Each IU Campus

Share of IU Students Population by Race and Ethnicity (2000 Degree Seeking)

Share of IU Students Population by Race and Ethnicity (2015 Degree Seeking)

The percentage of international students in 2015 (8.3%) is twice as much as the percentage in 2000 (4.2%).

Number of International students From 2000 to 2015

IU this year has a total of 8,055 international students, which is the largest number ever.

